GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
August 31, 2025 | 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 14:1, 7-14

Once I was invited to a group meeting with Pope Francis. Entering the room, I paused, eyeing the seats next to the Pope's fancy chair. Someone saw my paralysis and invited me to sit in the seat farthest from what I wanted. Hiding my disappointment, I sat. We waited. To our surprise, an aid pointed out that those seats were still empty and invited me and another to have them. We calmly but gleefully strode across the room and sat. Pope Francis entered, and we enjoyed two hours of amazingly uplifting conversation.

Jesus says this week to us: "When you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table" (Luke 14:10). This is not about how to score free seat upgrades. Rather, it is a wise pattern for the whole of life. It is how to live free from the anxiety of constantly grasping for status and recognition.

Jesus perfectly embodies his seat-taking advice. He eschews his glorious throne for the lowest: death on a cross, that lonely chair we all deserve. In his resurrection, he calls us up higher to his marvelous banquet seats. This week, perhaps we should look for opportunities to choose the lowest seat. We'll be pleasantly surprised when we do.

THE NOONDAY DEVIL - ACEDIA

It is said that holy monks would retreat into the desert to pray and fast and find God. Here in the desert at around noon where the sun would beat down hot, and the day would still seem long, temptations would strike. Subtle temptations would whisper, Why are you doing this anyways? Why should it matter if you pray and fast and sacrifice? You are not that holy. Look how nothing you ever do, comes to good. This time of day, with its depressive whispers was then named the noonday devil, also known as Acedia.

But even for us today, who have not retreated to the desert, we can find ourselves in the noontime of life. Where we have been converted and have habits of prayer and fasting, and yet maybe we don't feel what we used to. Maybe it is difficult to find God and we feel a spiritual laziness. Maybe we even feel a little depressed. The saints say, don't stop! Keep praying. Keep on the road. God is very near to you. Perhaps he is nearer than he has ever been!

*The mountain seems even larger the second time –
All I can see is the dull gray stone –
My heart does not beat in rhythms of adventure –
My feet do not shake or quiver or feel the urge to roam –
I imagine as I remember from each curve and bend –
Footholds of ascent and winged guides and new friends –
now just old ones... –*

*I sense and dwell on the gnat that buzzes about,
and the humidity in the air –
the languish of my bones –
lack of any care.*

*Doubting in this ascent that there could be anything new –
Dreading the pebbled path wondering of You, without deep sorrow –
Forgiveness under my belt – wishing almost of that past sinful self –
Just to hear Your still small voice.*

*There are very few songs about the second climb –
Maybe because the rhythm would sound more like,
wind chimes on the porch and rocking chairs-
adventure now a memory – changed yet still not arriving – but at the base of gray rock again.*

*Wondering if anyone knows to look for me among the lost sheep.
I wear the tag on my ear –
standing still within the fence, but looking over there... – remembering the sheep I called home
with eager praise and worship –
How can they be looking for me when I graze in green fields?*

*But last night when I prayed behind closed doors –
He came and placed me at the base of a dull gray mountain -
I had already climbed,
and He said to me,
-AGAIN!-*

I waited patiently for the Lord; he inclined to me and heard my cry. He drew me up from the desolate pit, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure. He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear, and put their trust in the Lord.
Psalm 40:1-3

It is proved by experience that a fit of acedia should not be evaded by running away from it, but overcome by resisting it. -St. John Cassian

"I would not want any other prayer than that which makes the virtues grow in me. If it should be accompanied by great temptations, dryness, and trials leaving me with greater humility, I would consider it a good prayer. That prayer is the best prayer that pleases God the most."
-St. Teresa of Avila

"Never give up prayer... and should you find dryness and difficulty, persevere in it for this very reason. God often desires to see what love your soul has, and love is not tried by ease and satisfaction".
-St. John of the Cross
